

Note: This procedure is legally required to comply with Ed Code. However, it is a mandatory subject of bargaining, and must be collectively bargained. Education Code Section 87610.1(a) also requires the union to consult with the academic senate prior to bargaining it

New – GCCCD Procedure

First Reading–8/13/12
Second Reading–9/4/12
Final Reading–10/8/12

AP 7216 Academic Employees (Faculty): Grievance Procedure for Contract Decisions

Reference: Education Code Section 87610.1

Date Issued:

---

[CCLC provided a template with the above legal notations only – no sample format was provided]

In compliance with Education Code regulations, Grossmont-Cuyamaca Community College District grievance procedures related to tenure track contract provisions for academic employees are contained in the faculty association contract approved by the Governing Board and posted on the District website. Pursuant to Education Code Section 87610.1(a), the faculty union must consult with the Academic Senate prior to bargaining the faculty grievance procedure.