Grossmont-Cuyamaca Community College District
Nonresident Tuition and Capital Outlay Fee

Education Code section 76140 requires each district governing board to establish the nonresident tuition fee for the following fiscal year by March 1st

Nonresident Tuition Fee Options

The district has seven options for the nonresident tuition:

Option 1   District Average Cost

Option 2   District Average cost with 10% or more noncredit FTES

Option 3   Statewide Average Cost

Option 4   Highest Statewide Average Cost

Option 5   An amount not to exceed the fee established by the governing board of any contiguous district

Option 6   An amount Between Statewide Average Expense of Education & District Expense of Education

     Fees adopted must be greater than statewide average expense of education and less than the district expense of education

Option 7   Comprable States Average

Nonresident Capital Outlay Fee

The District may charge a capital outlay fee to nonresident students:

Option 1 District capital outlay expenditures in the preceding fiscal year divided by total FTES

Option 2 Fifty percent of the nonresident tuition fee adopted by the district

Note: Currenlty no districts in the region that charge this fee

Processing Fee for Students from Foreign Countries

The district may charge international applicants a processing fee not to exceed the lesser of:

(1)   the actual cost of processing an application

(2) $100

This fee may be deducted from the tuition fee at the time of enrollment

Note: San Diego Community College District charges $100 processing fee
