	Governor's January Budget Summary (LINK)
1. 2024-2025 Governor's January Budget	Sahar began the meeting with welcoming everyone. Joining the Council was new member, Victoria Marron. Council members introduced themselves. Sahar went over a a document she put together to explain the proposed budget. No major reductions to programs or services. The Governor is canceling certain 1-time programs. Proposed COLA is 0.76%. This equates to approximately $1.1 million. Also included in the budget is $29.6 million to fund the 0.50% enrollment growth. The document presented is just a summary of the proposed budget.
	24-25 Joint Analysis Governor's January Budget (LINK)
	Sahar went over the Joint Analysis that was given out by ACBO and ACCCA. She did not go over the document in its entirety; it was for everyone to have as information.
	24-25 Budget Preparation Calendar (LINK)
2. 2024-2025 Budget Preparation Calendar	 Sahar highlighted important dates from the Budget Preparation Calendar. Tentative Budget Income Allocation Model (IAM), May 3 issued to sites. Governing Board Workshop on June 11 for Tentative Budget. Adoption Budget approved by the Governing Board on September 10 Annual Financial and Budget Report due to CCCCO (CCFS-311) on October 10 Annual Audit Report due to CCCCO on December 31
3. 2023-2024 Budget Update	23-24 Budget Update (LINK) Property taxes are coming in lower than anticipated; therefore, the projected state deficient at P1 is anticipated to 3.5%. P1 report will be issued at the end of February. Sahar reported there would be more updated information at the end of June at P2.
4. 2024-2025 Nonresident Tuition and Capital	Nonresident Tuition and Capital Outlay Fees
Outlay Fees	Overview (LINK)

GROSSMONT-CUYAMACA Community College District

Agenda Item	Documents
	Sahar went over the overview of the nonresident and explained how the District has seven options for the nonresident tuition fee. She went over the options and explained the changes for this year in regards to Chancellor's Office issued 2007 legal opinion.
	24-25 Nonresident Tuition Fee Calculation (LINK)
	Sahar went over the District average cost calculations, which is a four-year comparison. The annual total FTES is 13,648 (actuals). Sahar went over how the $399 was determined from the District Average Cost. The total FTES includes credit, noncredit, and nonresident FTES.
	24-25 Nonresident Tuition Fee Summary (LINK)
	Sahar reviewed the summary of options that the District has, and the local districts fees. The recommendation is to go with the continuous district of $356. It will go from $332 to $356. Local districts are going with $356. After the Governing Board meeting on February 13, Rosie will send an email to everyone that needs to know.
	23-24 SCFF Data Metrics Comparison (LINK)
5. 2023-2024 SCFF Data Metrics	Sahar went over the SCFF data metrics for FY 2022/23. She noted that the overall supplemental allocation increased by 0.05% from prior year. She explained the data for the student success allocation. Overall, it has gone down a little from last year. The student success allocation is based on a 3-year average. The data for 22/23 will be used in the SCFF calculation for 2023-24.
6. New FAFSA Application Process	Barbara reported on the new FAFSA system. In theory, it is supposed to increase the eligibility. However, it is going to increase the number of students that get a maximum Pell Grant. The issue is that FASFA changed to be simple and easier, but it was not realized that it would cause an overhaul of systems. The number of applicants is really low. There was discussion on how to assist students on
