

A Virtual Open Forum

GCCCD's 2021-22 Budget &
Return to Campus

Lynn Neault, Ed.D., Chancellor

Sahar Abushaban, Interim Vice Chancellor, Business Services

- Long-term emergency, unlike others
- Building resiliency is a must
- COVID-19 will become part of life
- A new normal will emerge

Lessons Learned During COVID-19

Back Open and Welcoming Students

- 25 percent of classes in-person or hybrid; full array of support services available on campus
- Planning for return to pre-pandemic operations in January
- Grossmont and Cuyamaca planning spring schedules with this principle in mind

Fall
2021

CUYAMACA
COLLEGE

WELCOME BACK!

We're ready for you Coyotes.

Reconnecting with Students and our Community

- Getting students back on track with their education and training
- Committee to plan for spring semester
- Intentional focus on re-engaging students of color; identifying where students struggled most with online platforms

Sports, Arts Events Reopen to Spectators

- Sporting events now open
- Theatre productions to kick off on Grossmont's campus September 30
- Music, dance performances scheduled for this fall
- COVID-19 protocols apply

- XXX total cases during fall semester
- Student cases: X at Cuyamaca and Y at Grossmont
- Employee cases: 12 total
- Nb employees have contacted COVID-19 from positive cases on campus

Update on GCCCD COVID-19 Cases

Ventilation Analysis

Planning for a post-COVID-19 future

- Hired consultant to assist in planning for the future after COVID-19
- Identifying how students will want to learn, and capacity building needs

Prioritizing Salary Equity

- Budget sets aside funding for compensation study and to make up gaps in equity
- Planning to provide salary improvements to keep up with rising cost of living
- Working with labor groups

Need for Risk Management

---

GROSSMONT-CUYAMACA
COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT

Thank you!