

Vice Chancellor of Human Resources Selected

October 24, 2022

Dear Colleagues,

I am pleased to announce that Aimee Gallagher has been selected as the new Vice Chancellor of Human Resources following a competitive search process. Aimee has successfully served in the position on an interim basis for the past year, and will officially begin on November 1.

As Vice Chancellor of Human Resources, Aimee will oversee labor relations, recruitment, benefits, Title IX, EEO and Diversity initiatives, professional development, employee relations, workers' compensation, and ADA compliance. She will lead major projects including establishing an EEO office and a Title IX officer position, working with District and college leadership to streamline recruitment and benefits practices, and working with the Personnel Commission and their new staff on recruitment.

Aimee joined the Grossmont-Cuyamaca Community College District as Interim Vice Chancellor of Human Resources, in fall 2021. She has managed critical efforts surrounding the return to work and COVID-19 safety planning and policy development, diversity in hiring, several key Human Resources projects identified in the Institutional Effectiveness Partnership Initiative, and labor negotiations.

Aimee previously worked as employee relations director at the San Diego Community College District (SDCCD) for eight years. In that position, she oversaw employee and labor relations, as well as classification, compensation, and professional development. Prior to her time at SDCCD, Aimee worked at the University of California, San Diego, as employee and labor relations principal specialist and acting director.

Aimee is a proud graduate of Grossmont College, and holds Bachelor of Arts and Juris Doctorate degrees from the University of Hawai'i.

Aimee is highly respected and appreciated for her thoughtful approach to problem-solving, strong organizational skills, and expertise in many areas of human resources.

Please join me in congratulating Aimee on her new role.

Sincerely,

Lynn
