The committee discussed how to promote Black History Month (February) and whether we should schedule something or plan to promote activities that the colleges are doing.

As part of the discussion above, the committee decided it would be good to come up with a list of the different awareness months that are scheduled throughout the year so that we can promote activities and/or develop activities that go with the awareness months.
- The committee discussed inviting student clubs to come to a future Fun Friday or DS-DEI meeting to share what their club is about and the types of activities they promote.
- Report from the DEI Council
