1. Proposed changes to AP's and BP's <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. District Vehicles AP b. Skateboards, Bikes AP 3525 c. Weapons AP 3530 d. Smoking BP 3560 & AP3560 e. Public Safety 	Nicole reviewed all proposed BP's and AP's with the group and asked for feedback. There were no major changes or additions. 3 members of the committee did not agree with the change to the smoking AP for "no smoking in personal vehicles while on district property". They felt it was too intrusive but will allow DEC to make the final decision. Proposals will be sent to next DEC meeting.
2. Speed Bump Requests at CC & GC <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. Cuyamaca Rancho San Diego b. Grossmont- Lot 1 & Parking Garage 	There will be no speed bumps placed at Cuyamaca per the committee's decision. Area to be monitored for speeding and discussed if more complaints arise. Two small scale speed bumps will be located in parking lot 1 at Grossmont college to prevent speeding through the lot.
3. Summer Session begins June 8th with 1 week grace period for permits	This item was acknowledged and is tabled for next meeting discussion. Nicole will check on permits for students receiving financial aid and committee will debate the need for a two week grace period during semester start.

4. New smoking stencils around campus.	Item acknowledged and agreed to continue with stencils.
Additions to the Agenda: CAPS Marketing Pens	Committee agreed the use of funds would be worth using to spread awareness about CAPS and their value to the college.
Construction Update	Updates were given for both Grossmont and Cuyamaca construction starting June 1 st and June 15 th . Email blasts will be sent to each campus reminding them.
News Letter Review	Committee reviewed the newsletter going out this week regarding a no smoking reminder and parking permit availability. This is the committee's first news letter to the campus.
Next meeting date: June 16 th @ 8:30am in Building 57, CAPS Conference Room
